1. [ ] Comment. A similar shipment of 9 boxcars and 19 flatcars was reported from Kummersdorf to Aken on the same day. [ ] It cannot be determined whether one or two troop trains were dispatched from Kummersdorf on 21 June. 25X1
2. [ ] Comment. Two trains [ ] went from Wustrow to Frankfurt/Oder on 21 and 22 June. The two trains probably carried units of the 32d AAA Div. 25X1
3. [ ] Comment. Elements of the 9th Mech Div were possibly entrained at the Jueterbog training grounds for training reasons prior to 22 June. 25X1
4. [ ] Comment. The two trains which were dispatched from Fuerstenwalde [ ] carried light units of the 63d AAA Div which transferred to Jueterbog. On 27 and 28 June, elements of the 4th Gds AAA Div left Dresden for Wustrow on 2 trains [ ] 25X1
5. [ ] Comment. The train [ ] presumably carried an artillery unit of the First Gds Mech Army, possibly the unidentified Arty Brig of the army, which went to Altengrabow for advanced combat practice firing. 25X1
6. [ ] Comment. On 29 June and 2 July, discarded guns were presumably shipped to the USSR from Altengrabow via Frankfurt/Oder. Similar observations were also made at other posts in the Soviet Zone during the month of June. On 29 June, new guns probably arrived at Altengrabow. They presumably belonged to a shipment which arrived in Fuerstenwalde from the USSR on 19 June. The shipment, which was bound for the ordnance depot [ ] consisted of 68 new 122-mm guns. Each 12 guns of the shipment were forwarded to Setzkorn and Eberswalde. The remaining 44 guns may have gone to Altengrabow. 25X1
7. [ ] Comment. It appears that, during the period from 23 to 30 June, [ ] exclusively return shipments from the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds to the posts of the 8th Gds Mech Div via the Schwepnitz and Koenigsbrueck railroad stations. 25X1
